OPENING & CLOSING SESSIONS

WHAT’S WELLNESS GOT TO DO WITH STUDENT SUCCESS? TODAY AND TOMORROW, IN THE CLASSROOM AND BEYOND
Dayle Hayes - School Meals that Rock
School wellness policies are not just a requirement; they are a critically important way to address the needs of today’s students. When students are well-nourished and physically active, they are better prepared to focus and learn at school. Dayle will explore opportunities for schools to invest in the health of students for a successful future.

FINDING YOUR WHY
Dr. Lynn Miller, Dr. Shane Hesse, Dr. Chris Lineberry - Core Purpose Consulting
It is the belief of Core Purpose Consulting that educators are some of the best people on planet Earth: giving, intelligent, caring, gifted, kind and determined to make a positive difference. How do we translate these outstanding qualities into a greater purpose than improving achievement, the test we want kids to do well on is the test of life. Academics is definitely a part of that, but this session is designed to help educators reconnect to their “why” and reignite the flames of passion and persistence to improve the lives of children, young adults, families and the community.

FEATURED SESSIONS

WELLNESS POLICY 101
Dr. Shane Hesse, Dr. Chris Lineberry, Dr. Lynn Miller - Core Purpose Consulting
This session will be an introduction into the legislation behind the school wellness policy requirement, the steps to create a school wellness policy, the benefits to schools having a school wellness policy and a wide variety of ideas and suggestions on how to get started and build excitement.

WELLNESS CHAMPION PANEL
Facilitated by Chris Lineberry, Core Purpose Consulting.
Panel: Tamalyn Taylor, Nye County; Carmen Brown, Nye County; Chris Regan, Lunt ES; Sarah Wright-Clancy, Quannah McCall ES.
This session will be an opportunity to have a discussion with leading school health experts on school health. This session will cover potential roadblocks to success and how to navigate them. There will also be an opportunity for attendees to ask questions about school wellness policy implementation and establishment of school health.

PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

RECESS BEFORE LUNCH: AMAZING SIMPLE WAY TO ENHANCE ACTIVITY, NUTRITION AND BEHAVIOR
Dayle Hayes, MS, RD - School Meals that Rock
Recess Before Lunch (RBL) is a simple, research-based schedule change recommended by school health advocates and government agencies (e.g., CDC, USDA and SHAPE). Scheduling RBL – allowing students to play first, then eat – has documented potential to improve student’s physical, socio-emotional and cognitive health and well-being. Dayle will explore RBL benefits – improved consumption, atmosphere and behavior – and discuss effective implementation.

PHYSICAL ACTIVITY BEHAVIOR/ACTIVE TRANSPORTATION
Timothy Bungham, DrPH - University of Nevada, Las Vegas
Traci Traasdahl - CCSD Safe Routes to School
This session will provide a review of the guidelines and benefits of physical activity, specific guidelines for age groups and safety while exercising. This session will also discuss the Safe Routes to School program, student bike and pedestrian safety, and education and encouragement programs that can be incorporated at any school.

COMPETITIVE FOODS / FUNDRAISING

HEALTHY AND SUCCESSFUL ALTERNATIVES TO FOOD-BASED FUNDRAISERS AND CLASSROOM REWARDS AND INCENTIVES
Allison Schnitzer, RD, LD - Southern Nevada Health District
Learn creative and innovative ways to hold successful school fundraisers and provide motivational classroom incentives and rewards that are not food-based and comply with the standards for fundraising and incentives and rewards.

NAVIGATING COMPETITIVE FOODS
Lory Hayon, RD, LDN
Eliminate the confusion surrounding what foods and beverages may be offered during the school day. This session will explain the current regulations and how to choose compliant offerings for the student store, vending machines, class parties and other events that take place during the school day.

NUTRITION STANDARDS & EDUCATION

NUTRITION STANDARDS IN THE WELLNESS POLICY
Joe Dibble, LD, RDN - Nevada Department of Agriculture
Participants will learn foundational nutrition information, requirements and limitations within state and district school wellness policies. The session will also review how to screen and implement school wellness policies in schools and classrooms.

A POSITIVE POSITION ON NUTRITION
Aurora Buffington, PhD, RDN, LD - University of Nevada Cooperative Extension
This session will provide tips to help schools achieve the nutrition promotion and education goal of the Nevada School Wellness Policy. Five ways to meet the goal will be presented, along with specific resources and references to help make nutrition education and promotion easy for your school.
WELLNESS POLICY IMPLEMENTATION

CREATE YOUR OWN SCHOOL WELLNESS POLICY
Dr. Chris Lineberry - Core Purpose Consulting
This session will be a deeper dive into what is required in a school wellness policy, how to put together a Student Health Advisory Council, scripts to use when speaking with a principal or administrator (as well as potential team members) and ways to get students involved.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF A SCHOOL WELLNESS COORDINATOR
Bobbie Davidson - Nevada Department of Agriculture
Learn about what being a school wellness coordinator entails, important dates for reporting and useful resources to aide in your new role.

ORGANIZING A SCHOOL WELLNESS COMMITTEE
Sierra Kirby, MPH, RD - University of Nevada Cooperative Extension
This session will provide background information on organizing an ideal school wellness committee. Additionally, experience and stories from the field will be provided by Crystal Momii, a Community Based Instructor for the Healthy Kids, Healthy Schools programs at the University of Nevada Cooperative Extension.

WELLNESS ENGAGEMENT: STAFF, STUDENTS, PARENTS & COMMUNITY
Dr. Shane Hesse, Dr. Lynn Miller - Core Purpose Consulting
This session will be an overview of the Whole School, Whole Child, Whole Community (WSCC) program developed by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention. Additionally, Dr. Hesse and Dr. Miller will delve into the Student Wellness Advocacy Team (SWAT) program and how students can help drive the process of a school becoming healthier.

WELLNESS POLICY SUPPORT

FARM TO SCHOOL AND THE WELLNESS POLICY
Emily Litz, M.Ed - Green Our Planet
School garden programming is a great way for schools to meet the Nevada School Wellness Policy standards by providing students a fun way to become physically active and learn about nutrition. School gardens offer healthy fundraising alternatives and provide the community access to affordable, healthy produce.

THE NUTS AND BOLTS OF GRANT WRITING
Millicent Braxton, PhD - University of Nevada Cooperative Extension
A grant proposal is not merely a request for money—it is much more than that. A grant award is not just funding—it is a tool, a means to an end and an investment in change. By the end of this workshop, participants will acquire knowledge to writing a successful grant proposal.

HEALTH MATTERS
Jessica Enders, RDN - Children’s Heart Center
This session will review the benefits of activity and healthy eating and the consequences of inactivity and unhealthy eating from the perspective of a dietician working with children in a risk-reduction program. Ideas for community resources will also be provided.

CREATING WELLNESS AT YOUR SCHOOL
Mimi Parkerson, MPH, RD - American Heart Association
Jake Yarberry, RDN, RD - Dairy Council of NV/Fuel Up to Play 60
This session is a partnership between the Nevada Dairy Council and the American Heart Association (AHA) Las Vegas. Fuel Up to Play 60 funding opportunities will be discussed, how other programs such as the AHA’s Kids Heart Challenge fits in to Fuel Up to Play 60’s playbook and how incentives from the NFL can help to promote wellness programs in Nevada schools.
