

SB 503: Breakfast After the Bell December 2015 Progress Report

Senate Bill 503, also known as the Breakfast After the Bell Bill, was signed into law by Governor Brian Sandoval on June 12, 2015. The bill required all Nevada schools with 70 percent or greater free/reduced lunch eligibility implement an option for students to have access to breakfast after the start of the school day. The bill also set aside $2 million in grant money to assist in implementation over the next two years. The following data shows participation success, progress in grant applications, awards and implementation in the 2015-2016 school year as of Nov. 30, 2015.

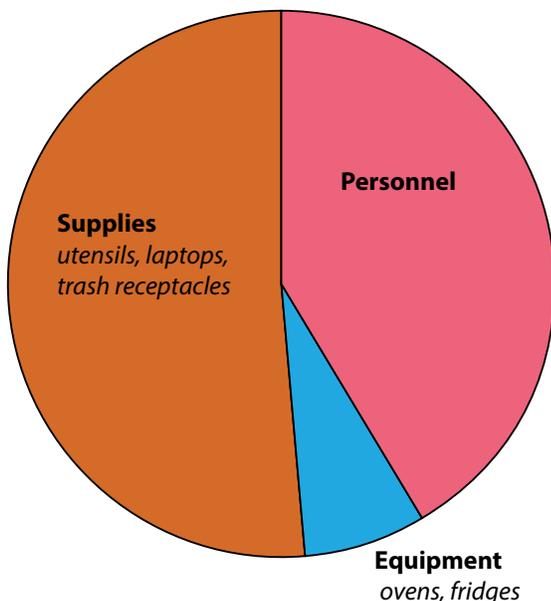

SUCCESS TO DATE

- + 61 schools (of 110) in all eight eligible districts have received $476,883 in grant awards, increasing access to breakfast for more than 26,000 students statewide.
- + 781,707 more breakfasts served compared to the same time last year.
- + 20 percent increase in breakfast participation among qualifying schools over the same time last year.
- + additional $1.5 million in Federal reimbursements into the State of Nevada.
- + Increased access to breakfast in high-need schools is important because extensive research has shown that students who eat breakfast achieve academically, have fewer behavioral issues and fewer visits to the school nurse.
